

ESDPs Follow-up and Valediction at Ashok Nagar, Hyderabad

The valediction of ESDPs conducted with the support of Sarvodaya Foundation (8 batches), Support Charity Organization (8 batches), Mother Theresa Mahila Mandali (10 batches) and J-Foundation (8 batches) was held on the 27th at Lotus Golden Plaza conference hall, Ashok Nagar, Hyderabad. As many as 1,050 career aspirants received programme completion certificates on the occasion.

Mr. G. Prasada Rao, Senior Manager, Allahabad Bank, Kothapet branch, Hyderabad was the chief guest of the occasion. He stressed on entrepreneurship and the opportunities available in vocational jobs, and enumerated the state government schemes for starting up units. Inspiring the trainees with real life examples, he shared his own experiences as entrepreneur.

The Director General of ni-msme conveyed his message congratulating the trainees on their successful completion of ESDPs, and wishing them success in their career endeavours. Further he called on those seeking wage employments to sincerely strive for self-employment after gaining experience.

Mr. J. Koteswara Rao, faculty of SED and programme coordinator highlighted the Institute's activities, and advised registering with MSME naukri.com for placements and visiting smallb.in portal for starting up.

Earlier, the participants shared their impressions about the programmes and expressed gratitude to the Ministry of MSME and ni-msme for conducting them.

The follow-up meet was combined with the valedictory event. Mr. A. Koteswara Rao, consultant (ATI cell) of ni-msme and coordinator said that the skill part is specifically added in the training to establish/ promote MSEs.

Dr. Nikhitha Rao of Sarvodaya Foundation; Ms. Neelima of Support Charity Organization; Mr. Yeshwanth Kumar of J-Foundation; Mr. Venkatesh of Jagruti Educational Society; and Mr. Ravi of MT Educare coordinated the event, which ended with vote of thanks by Ms. Neelima, programme co-ordinator at Support Charity.