

Valedictory Function at Kukatpally, Hyderabad

A formal valediction of six ESDPs each in Mushroom Cultivation and Food Processing was held on 20th May 2015 at Sardar Patel Nagar Community Hall, Kukatpally, Hyderabad. Mr. N. Janardhan Reddy, Chief Manager, Bank of Baroda, Punjagutta Branch, Hyderabad was the chief guest of the occasion. Addressing the assemblage, he emphasised the need for entrepreneurship and the role of youth. The trainees of both ESDPs gave feed-back about the programmes, and their future plans.

Earlier, Dr. (Mrs.) K. Prasuna, Proprietrix ,’S’ Mushroom Agritech, Hyderabad welcomed the dignitaries and the house. Dr. G.U.K. Rao, Director-SED, ni-msme reviewed the Institute’s activities, and requested the bankers to extend financial assistance to eligible trainees.

Mr.N.R. Prasad Reddy of ni-msme advised all the trainees to utilise the services of ni-msme effectively and become successful entrepreneurs. He has advised the trainees not to keep themselves idle after completing the course.

Mrs. Sucharita, Senior Manager, and Mr. Pramod Krishna, Credit Manager, Bharathiya Mahila Bank, Ameerpet branch, Hyderabad; and Mr. Sai Teja, State Bank of India, SME branch, Kukatpally, Hyderabad were the Guests of Honour. They explained about different schemes of their banks and how to apply under various schemes. Mr. S.P. Reddy, VRS Senior Manager, Corporation Bank and Executive Director, ‘S’ Mushroom Agritech proposed the vote of thanks.