

REPORT

A talent mela was conducted on the 7th of Feb.2015 between 10.30am to 4.00pm. In order to make the event attractive, effective, purposeful and objective, the event was combined with many other activities like holding talks by various experts on the importance of skill development, organising exhibitions of the products made and displayed by various skilled trained entrepreneurs; presentations made by various industrialists and significant placement organisations etc.

I am hereby listing out the names of the various dignitaries who were present and made their presentations on skill development and employability.

1. Chief Guest: Shri Bandaru Dattatreya, Union Minister of State for Labour and Employment
2. Mr. Jayesh Ranjan, IAS, Vice Chairman and Managing Director Telangana State Industrial Infrastructure Corporation Ltd.
3. Mr. Paul Comyn, Phd. Senior Vocational Trainer and Skills Development Specialist, ILO
4. Shri T. Muralidharan, Executive chairman of TMI group and one of India's top recruiters and carrier consultant.
5. Ms. K. Rama Devi, Founder President CED-ALEAP
6. Various Industrialists, Entrepreneurs, Senior officials from MSME-DI, CITD etc.

All the above individuals spoke about the importance of skill development either from point of view of becoming a successful entrepreneur or from the angle of getting a job.

There was an exclusive large stall with the banner titled: Talent Mela- A meet Bringing Skilled Individuals and Prospective Employers. At this stall a number of registrations have taken place and these were passed on to the various industrialists, Entrepreneurs and placement organisations.

A glimpse of the entire event can be had from the photographs taken, a few of which are included in the report.
