

Entrepreneurship Development Institute, Chennai

Talent Mela Report

The Entrepreneurship Development Institute organised the talent mela for the programme conducted during 2014-15. There were 125 number of participants in the mela. Wide publicity has been given and most students individually contacted to attend the programme by EDI . There were varieties of companies participating in the programme from TVS for automobile sector, Spencer's and coffee day for retail sector, McDonalds from retail and service sector.

Category – I

AUTOMOBILE SECTOR

The candidates were given an application to fill up the profile and later sent to the gallery that suited their requirements. We find the TVS Training & Services persons interrogating the candidate for recruitment.

Category –II

COMPUTER BASED JOB

The candidates were given an application to fill up the profile and later sent to the gallery that suited their requirements. Above we find the CSC Computer centre persons interrogating the candidate for recruitment.

Category –III

RETAIL AND SERVICE SECTOR

The candidates were given an application to fill up the profile and later sent to the gallery that suited their requirements. Above we find the McDonald's persons interrogating the candidate for recruitment.

Category –IV

RETAIL AND SERVICE SECTOR

The candidates were given an application to fill up the profile and later sent to the gallery that suited their requirements. We find the Spencer's and coffee day persons interrogating the candidate for recruitment.

The photographs of the candidates who were satisfied on the job mela saying it was beneficial to them and posed for the photograph.

The supervision by the Director /Principal Secretary, Entrepreneurship Development Institute, Chennai.

