OVERCOMING CHALLENGES
As the world becomes more interconnected, it is important for businesses to be able to adapt to new technologies and changing markets. The Small Industry Development Organization (SIDO) has been working to help small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) to overcome the challenges of globalisation; help them cope with competition; and enable the entrepreneurs to face the challenges of relevance. Through its range of specialised training programmes, workshops, and seminars, the organisation has been able to provide SMEs with the tools and strategies they need to succeed in the global marketplace.
